

KARE Club Contributes to Newborns' Well-Being Around the World

Madison Middle School's KARE service club members organized a homemade baby hat drive for the Save The Children Caps for Good campaign. Madison students, faculty members, and family members created 74 newborn hats that will be shipped to newborn health programs in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

