

Thank you so much for supporting Trumbull High School's YALE MODEL UN Delegation 2011. Sixteen students represented Somalia and the Republic of Korea against 1,200 students from around the world. Junior Michael McGuigan took home "Honorable Mention" for his work as South Korea in the Economic and Financial Committee. We appreciate your continued support of our team.
~ Ms. Boland and the Model UN Team

“Going to Yale for the Model UN Conference was such a great experience. It was especially fun meeting new people from around the world!”

~ Usha Latif THS '13

“Being on SPECPOL, I got to meet many delegates representing over 60 countries. I was able to hear many different opinions regarding nuclear proliferation and the Israeli-Palestine conflict. The quality of debate at Yale was amazing and I had a great time.”

~ Emily Block, THS '11, President of Model UN Club

Trumbull High School was the only public high school in Connecticut to win an award at Yale Model UN 2011. Congratulations to the entire delegation!

“I was on Press Corps. We dealt with managing an intense feed of information and packaging it for our readers via a variety of social media (Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, blogs). As part of Fox News, my team had to deal with situations, report effectively, and beat our competition at CNN.”

~ Brett Rosen THS '11, Vice President of Model UN Club

“Yale Model UN was so much fun and I enjoyed meeting new people and the quality of debates in our committee.”

~ Maddie Festa THS '13

“YMUN had a great professional atmosphere and provided a window into the college experience.”

~ Ryan McEniry THS '13

“I enjoyed the chance to be able to represent another nation, and gain further insight into the necessity of compromise.”

~ Michael McGuigan THS '12

“One of the best things about YMUN, besides the intense debate and the complexity of the issues, is the social interaction. You meet people from all around the world and it truly is a good time.” ~ Gulrukh Haroon THS '13, Secretary of Model UN Club

“I couldn't be more proud of the Trumbull High School Model UN Club. The students worked extremely hard this winter researching their country and issues. They represented their country and THS very well at Yale!”

~ Ms. Boland, THS Model UN Advisor
