

Model U.N. Conference

The Trumbull High School Model United Nations Club will be hosting a Model U.N. Conference on May 24 at Trumbull High School from 4 to 8. The nation's future diplomats welcome the general public to the Senior Lounge to view the art of diplomacy as practiced by the United Nations.

The Trumbull Model U.N. Invitational (TMUNI) was founded by senior co-chairs Emily Block and Brett Rosen with the assistance of their adviser, Ms. Katie Boland. Students from Trumbull High School and Newtown High School will be debating, through a simulation of the United Nations Human Rights Council, the topic of the treatment of protestors in the Middle East.

The Trumbull High School Model United Nations Club is being supported by the Trumbull ACE Foundation, which supports Trumbull Public Schools academic teams and will provide refreshments.

For more information about the Trumbull High School Model United Nations Club or TMUNI, visit <http://bit.ly/kQuQ2e>.